ORDER

The above captioned case was marked closed on October 13, 2006 and a notice of settlement with attached release filed on December 26, 2006. The case involved an interference with religious rights claim under the First Amendment, the Equal Protection Clause and under the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act and an Eighth Amendment claim that Plaintiff was denied pork substitutes in meals rendering them nutritionally inadequate.

On January 26, 2007 Plaintiff filed a motion with this court asking that he be permitted to continue his case and bring a supplemental action to redress allegations of additional violations of his constitutional rights, not involving the denial of an adequate diet or related to any religious requirements. Basically, he wants to utilize the prior filed, and now closed, action to file a second complaint with the court, without having to file another motion to proceed in forma pauperis, and without filing any complaint.

This cannot be allowed. The rules are clear that plaintiff must first comply with the exhaustion requirements set forth by Congress, he must then file another in forma pauperis motion, that will be subject to the screening provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915A. Therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff's Motion to Continue to Proceed In Forma Pauperis and Bring a Supplemental Action is DENIED.
